(c) No Sir.

Problems of linguistic minorities by Minorities Commission in its 33rd Report

3957. DR. D. VENKATESHWAR RAO: Will the Minister of WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) the problems of the linguistic minorities pointed out by the Minorities Commission in its 33rd Report; and

(b) the action taken to find a solution to the problem?

THE MINISTER OF WELFARE (SHRI BALWANT SINGH RAMOOWALIA): (a) The Minorities Commission does not deal with the Linguistic Minorities for which a Special Officer is appointed in terms of Article 350 (B) of the Constitution. This Officer is designated as Commissioner for Linguistic Minorities in India. The basic function of the Commissioner, as enjoined by Article 350 B (2) of the Constitution, is to investigate all matters relating to safeguards provided for linguistic minorities and report to the President upon these matters at such intervals as the President may direct, and the President shall cause all such reports to be laid before each House of Parliament. The Commissioner for Linguistic Minorities, who took charge of his post only on 16.10.1996, presented the 33rd Report on Linguistic Minorities to the Government. This covers the period from July, 1992 to June, 1993 and is not the Report of CLM in terms of Article 350 B (2) of the Constitution. However, in view of its public importance, it has been decided to solicit the approval of President of India to place the copies of the Report on Table of both the Houses of Parliament.

(b) A number of recommendations on matters relating to safeguards provided to Linguistic Minorities have been made in the 33rd Report. After placement of the Report on Table of both the Houses of Parliament, these will be examined by the Government and refered to the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations for necessary action.

Sub: Reservation for Other Backward Classes—exclusion of Creamy Layer for the purpose of appointment in services and posts under the Government of India—Certificate to be produced by the candidates.

Sir,

I am directed to say that the Government of India has issued instructions on 8.9.93 providing for reservation to Other Backward Classes in the services and posts under the Government of India (A copy of this O.M. is enclosed). The Other Backward Classes for the purpose of the above said reservation would comprise, in the first phase, the castes and communities which are common to both the lists in the report of the Mandal Commission and the State Government's list. A list of such castes and communities was notified in Resolution No. 12011/68/93-BCC(C), dated 10th Sept. 1993 published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary Part I Section I dated 13.9.93. For the purpose of verification of the castes and communities the Government of India has prescribed a certificate from the following authorities as in the case of SC/ST vide this Department's O.M. No. 36012/22/93-Estt. (SCT), dated 22.10.93 (copy enclosed):
